MERC 2026

This Website Privacy Policy applies to the Mining Emergency Response Competition (MERC) website. If you navigate from this website to an external site, we encourage you to review the privacy statement of that site.

Collection of Personal Information

You may browse most sections of the MERC website anonymously without providing personal information. However, certain functions, such as registering to participate in MERC or submitting payment details, require the collection of personal information. We may collect, use, or disclose this information to respond to your enquiry, process a transaction, or facilitate your participation in MERC.

All event registrations completed through the MERC website are processed using the EventsAir platform. To view their Privacy Policy, please visit <https://www.eventsair.com/privacy>.

All payments made through the MERC website are processed using the Stripe payment platform. To view their Privacy Policy, please visit <https://stripe.com/au/privacy>.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

Personal information collected through the MERC website may be used or disclosed for the primary purpose for which it was provided. It may also be used or disclosed for related secondary purposes, such as coordinating event logistics or administrative requirements associated with MERC.

Collection and Use of Site Visit Data

For statistical and system administration purposes, the following information may be automatically recorded by this website's server:

- Your server address
- Your Top-Level domain name (.net, .com, .au, .gov)
- The date and time you visited the site
- The pages you accessed and/or documents you downloaded
- Your operating system
- The type of browser you are using (Google, Explorer, Edge)

The MERC will not attempt to identify individuals from this information except where required by law or necessary for investigating a potential breach of legislation or regulation.

Cookies

Cookies are small data files exchanged between a web server and a user's browser. MERC uses cookies, and the information they collect, to enhance the functionality and user experience of this website.
